I/Sgt. finds the following facts to be true and undisputed:

That on 09 June 2002, a street festival "Andersonville MidSommarfest" had required the closing of Clark Street to vehicular Traffic from Catalpa to Foster. P.O. Ronan and Soristo were assigned to the fixed post at Catalpa and Clark Streets, as beat 2061B and were dressed in the appropriate CPD field uniform. The officers' duties required that they not allow any vehicular traffic to travel south of Catalpa on Clark. The south bound lane of traffic was blocked by a large type III barricade which had a large sign on it reading "ROAD CLOSED." The officers had also parked a marked Chicago Police Department Vehicle so as to partially block the intersection. At Approximately 1704 hrs The Complainant, [REDACTED] drove her vehicle up Officers Ronan and Soristo.

I/Sgt also finds that [REDACTED] and the officers then had some conversation the contents of which are disputed. After the conversation ended [REDACTED] vehicle began to move with P.O. Ronan eventually ending up upon the hood of the vehicle

SUMMARY

I/Sgt. finds that the allegation that P.O. Ronan and Soristo failed to provide appropriate Police assistance to be unfounded as there is no evidence to show [REDACTED] ever requested any advice or any other assistance other than demanding the officers move so she could proceed past a road block and go home. Both officers in their statements (#13&17) and reports (#3,4,5,6,7) give the same version of the incident, That [REDACTED] never asked for any assistance or asked any question, initially only activating her horn and motioning with her hand for the officers to move out of her vehicle's path. In [REDACTED] interview with Capt. Gross (#9) there is no mention of her needing any assistance prior to the incident nor asking the officers for any. I/Sgt. was left the impression that this allegation was some sort of after the fact criminal defense contrived by [REDACTED] to show the unreasonableness of the officers and justify her attempt to pass the barricade.

I/Sgt. finds that the allegation that P.O. Soristo verbally abused her by stating "you are disobeying me, Stupid Bitch" should be classified as Unfounded. In [REDACTED] interview with Capt. Gross she attributed this phrase to P.O. Ronan (#9). In her statement to I/Sgt., she attributed this allegation to P.O. Soristo. Both officers deny having made such a remark.

I/Sgt. finds the allegation that the officers falsely arrested her to be untrue and should be classified as Unfounded. All of the parties involved were interviewed by the W/C, Capt. Gross, as well as the investigating detectives, whom pursued a charge of Aggravated Battery of a Police Officer. The involved parties were also interviewed by ASA Riordan of The Cook County State's Attorney Felony Review Unit who found sufficient evidence to charge [REDACTED] with Aggravated Battery of A Police Officer.
